Count   Response

---

1      I am proud of the advocacy activism of the THB and AAUW NC -- the information and calls to action, ability to work with other collaborative organizations

1      Keeping informed on a regular basis of all issues that fall under AAUW NC's missions. Meeting and networking with other like-minded women in our state. Reaching out to women in other online branches nationwide to share best projects and practices.

---

1      Pay equity for NC women and girls Legislative issues that promote economic self sufficiency for all women and girls.

---

1      Link and participation to local universities. That is an absolute MUST for the future of any branch or the state level.

4. What can you offer the Tar Heel branch to assist in meeting AAUW's mission?

Count	Response
1	Advocacy from my personal computer
1	An engaged member and service as a board member.
1	Assistance with short term specific tasks.
1	Communication about AAUW...hopefully will do better!
1	ERA work. (I'm focusing on this issue only.)
1	Earmark some of my donation to the Educational Foundation to be credited to thb
1	Help get computer messages to members
1	I can assist with setting up Start Smart / Work Smart workshops for their local branches.
1	I don't know. I'm president of my branch and putting in a lot of time.
1	I have not attended a meeting in over a year
1	I have some governance type of experience from other organizations.
1	I try to attend meeting and participate
1	Informal representation of TH Branch mission and contacts in western NC
1	More connection
1	My expertise and interest in STEM.
1	Networking
1	Not in arealive in OBX
1	Probably nothing as I'm still too involved with AAUW Greensboro.
1	Some of my time to work on our issues. I am trying to travel a bit less than I used to for AAUW.
1	Suggested Membership Activities (increasing membership)
1	Willing to advocate and spread the word about AAUW's policy positions.
1	board member, support of the branch, raise awareness in other branches
1	limited time
1	n/a
1	participation
1	I continue to be a member of THB and to support its role as a non-community based online branch which has found an admirable niche in public policy advocacy. I refer to the THB when I mention my other branch memberships.
1	Attendance and representation at meetings in the Triad area - also attendance at legislative actions days in Raleigh. Meeting with congressional delegation that is home based in the Traid.
1	Supporting the infrastructure. (Would love some help with the website and social media -- for sustainability purposes if nothing else.)

Count	Response

---

1	At the moment, and for the next two years, I will be involved with AAUW through the state board and as president of the the Hendersonville branch. I am unable to take on additional tasks at this time.

5. What do you think this branch is doing well?

Count	Response
1	Communication of legislative issues
1	Communications and advocacy
1	Connecting people who might not ever meet.
1	Everything
1	Good contacts.
1	Hard to tell since my involvement is very peripheral.
1	Hooray for your active public policy work!
1	I have not attended a meeting in over a year
1	I just joined, so I don't really know.
1	Information distribution
1	Keeping members aware of current isses
1	Keeping members informed, bringing in other organizations to partner with
1	Keeping the branch informed
1	Keeping us informed
1	Keeping us informed.
1	Keeping us updated
1	Providing information Offering opportunities for networking
1	communication
1	haven't really been involved
1	n/a
1	providing a service to women who cannot participate in a land-based branch.
1	we get good speakers
1	working with colleges on stem / working with colleges
1	Keeping the TH Branch branch "alive" and functional through social media Having well placed leaders, eespecially leaders from the eastern part of NC where there is generally more "action" Having well placed branch leaders who are "on top" of what's going on with women's issues
1	Providing AAUW information to members who would not otherwise be members. I think sometime in the future AAUW will become more virtual branches than monthly meeting in person branches.
1	Connecting new people to the national AAUW resources (though it'd be great if more members saw that as an opportunity)
1	Keeping up to date on what's most important -mission wise-in NC, as well as nationally. Opening up communication between all members for a variety of issues/"hot topics" right as they develop.

1      Communication to spotlight important issues from National and State. To spotlight members who are movers and shakers across the state.

---

1      Reaching new members who are unable to attend regular meetings of an AAUW chapter. Keeping these women informed about goals and activities of AAUW, and offering ways they can participate.

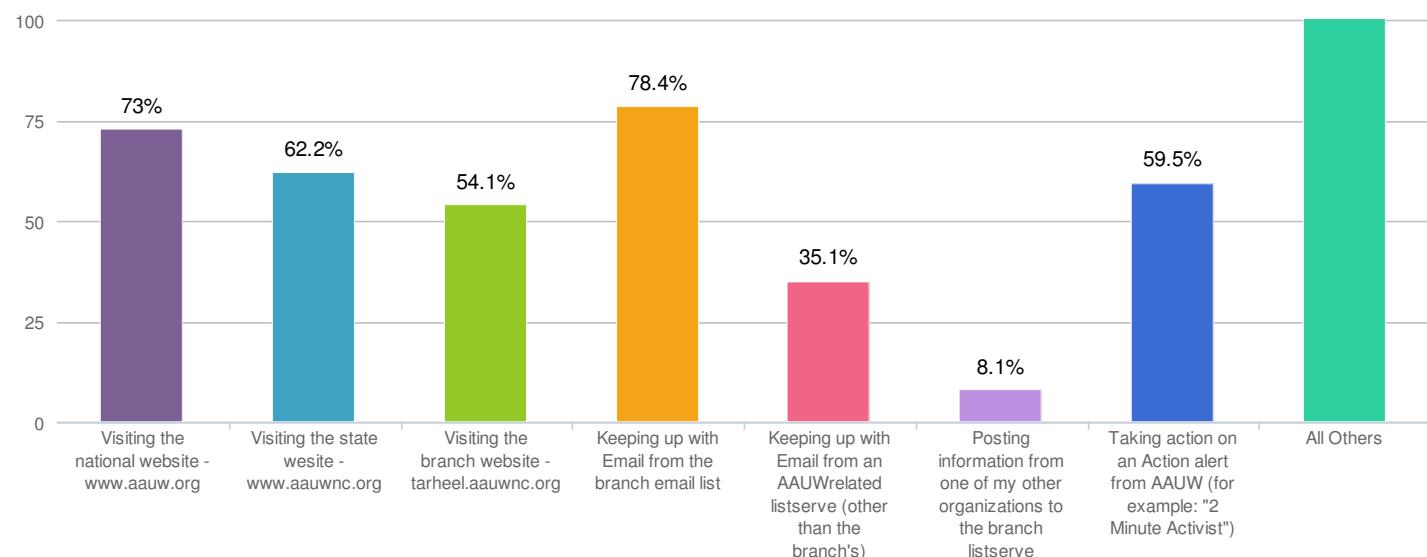

---

1      Probably has the greatest diversity of any branch in the state so we need to share that message and encourage other branches to reach out.

6. As a virtual branch, e-mail is currently our basic tool to communicate with each other. Please rank the following communication tools you prefer to use. 1=Least preferred 6=Most preferred.
